Meeting began at 8:30am.

The group toured Parkside Homes, a residential facility in Soudan, as a possible location for the charter school. The building has a full-size commercial kitchen and meets commercial fire and safety codes. The building is currently being used as a rooming house.

After the tour the board met at Muriel Scott's home in Soudan.

Ray Toutloff will set up a meeting with Architectural Resources to review the possible use of the current Tower School building.

An update was given on the authorization process and correspondence from Bryan Rossi of NEO and Cindy Murphy from the MDE. Rossi sent information to the MDE on October 6th in response to their request for additional information.
